

GOVERNANCE

'Birrang' is a Wiradjuri word meaning 'horizon'

Birrang Enterprise Development Company Ltd ('Birrang') was formed in 2003. Its founders were visionary Aboriginal men and women from across regional New South Wales whose goal was to make a difference in Aboriginal people's lives. Over time, Birrang has expanded its activities to include people from other cultures and backgrounds, in response to identified needs and opportunities. Birrang employs a Chief Executive Officer and a team of qualified staff to administer its day-to-day operations at an office complex in Orange owned by Birrang.

Gregory Murray (Chairman)

Mr Murray has been a member of our Board since inception on 3rd November 2003. He has had extensive experience and involvement upon numerous Boards, including 15 years as Chairman of the Woomera Aboriginal Corporation. Mr Murray was also an active representative of ATSIC in excess of 12 years. Mr Murray has successfully managed his own business for 15 years.

Rose Dunn (Treasurer)

Ms Dunn has been a member of the Birrang Board since its inception in 2003. She is currently a Board member of the Deniliquin Local Aboriginal Lands Council where she has also held the position of Chief Executive Officer.

Graham Kilby (Secretary)

Mr Kilby has been a member of the Birrang Board since October 2004. He has been employed within the Public Sector for the past 17 years in positions focused on Indigenous employment and welfare.

Danny Kelly (Director)

Mr Kelly has been a director since December, 2004. He is the Chief Executive Officer of the Balranald Aboriginal Medical Service and has held this position for 10 years. He has also been on the Board of the NSW Aboriginal Health Medical and Research Council for the past 8 years and has sat on their Special Ethics Committee as Deputy Chairperson for the last 5 years.

William Allen (Director)

Mr Allen has been a director since 2005. He has co-ordinated the Bathurst Local Aboriginal Lands Council in the late 1980's. He has been employed through National Parks & Wildlife for over a period of 12 years; working with Cultural Heritage & Management. Mr Allen is engaged with the local Bathurst Schools, teaching students Cultural Heritage & Wiradjuri Languages.

Alistair Ferguson (Director)

Mr Ferguson was welcomed as a Board Member in 2012. He currently is employed with the NSW Ombudsman Office and has held this position for several years. Mr Ferguson is also a representative on the State Advisory Committee of IPROWD; Indigenous Police Recruitment Our Way Delivery, Co Chair of the Bourke Aboriginal Community Working Party.

Birrang Enterprise Development Company Limited

9 Colliers Avenue, Orange NSW 2800 P: (02) 6361 9511 F: (02) 6360 1251 E: reception@birrang.com.au